

Better Grazing = Better Business

Moffat House Hotel, Moffat. Wednesday 8 February 2017
10.00	Registration & Coffee
Morning Session chaired by Emily Grant, QMS
10.20	Welcome	Emily Grant , Grassland Co-ordinator, QMS
10.25	Grazed Grass – the greatest opportunity in farming	Michael Blanche , Knowledge Transfer Specialist, QMS
10.55	Using Grass to Maximise Profitability	Andre Van Barneveld , Graise Consultancy, Ireland
11.40	Livestock to Profit, Through Grass	Trevor Cook , Totally Vets Ltd, New Zealand
12:20	Better Grazing = Better Business	Jim Logan , Pirntaton Farm, Galashiels, QMS Grazing Group Host
12.50	Lunch
Afternoon Breakout Sessions.
There are three breakout sessions each with one expert, plus one experienced QMS Grazing Group host or member. Delegates will rotate around the 3 sessions, each lasting 20 minutes.
13.35	Group A Robert Fleming will share his experiences of grazing management on his own farm. Key areas for possible questions - growing more grass, grass quality, grass supply, setting up simple systems.	Robert Fleming , South Milton, Glenluce Andre van Barneveld , Graise Consultancy, Ireland
	Group B An opportunity to ask Trevor and Jim questions. Key areas for possible questions – livestock needs at various production stages, lambing/calving dates, setting up rotational systems	Jim Logan , Pirntaton Farm, Galashiels Trevor Cook , Totally Vets Ltd, New Zealand
	Group C Alan Cowan will share his experiences from his farm. Key areas for possible questions - controlling grass, paddocks, rotations, mob size, rotation length, water supply, keeping costs low.	Alan Cowan , Westerheugh Farm, Northumberland Michael Blanche , Knowledge Transfer Specialist, QMS
14:55	Round up of the day	Emily Grant , Grassland Co-ordinator, QMS
15.00	End of Event	