

Project Officer

Brands Integrity/ Industry Development Quality Meat Scotland

Are you passionate about livestock farming and quality produce?

If you have answered 'yes', then Quality Meat Scotland (QMS) has the role for you!

QMS is the Scottish Red Meat Levy body. We work with the Scottish red meat industry to support, protect, promote and develop the people and products that make up the Scottish red meat sector.

We have an exciting role working across our Brands Integrity and Industry Development teams as a Project Officer, who will support QMS' work with levy payers and industry stakeholders in helping to improve the economic, environmental and social sustainability of the red meat sector. More than ever, the red meat sector is a dynamic, fast-paced field to work in and this is an exciting time to join QMS' two industry facing teams as we look to develop a bold vision for Scottish red meat sector and provide producers, processors, and consumers with the tools we need to drive the industry forward.

Reporting to the Head of Brands Integrity with additional support from the Head of Industry Development as Project Officer across these two departments at QMS, no two working days will be the same.

This role is permanent and full time, however, we are focused on getting the right candidate, so flexible working patterns could be considered. QMS is now an organisation that works from home, however we do have an office based in the outskirts of Edinburgh for team projects and collaborative working, so there is also a great deal of flexibility on location.

We offer a comprehensive remuneration and reward package, including a competitive salary, 25 days holidays plus statutory holidays, company maternity policy and 10% employer pension contribution.
